

(Image 1)

Ethics and the Law

(Image 2)

(Image 3)

SANCTIONS – ASHA BOE

If found in violation of the ASHA Code of Ethics, one of the following sanctions is applied:

(PRIVATE) Reprimand

Between Complainant and Respondent

PUBLIC
Published in The ASHA Leader and on ASHAwire

Censure

Withholding – for Applicants or Dropped Members

Suspension– For months or years*

Revocation – For months, years, or life

 Interrupts Certification/Membership*

Cease & desist orders, which can be public or private, can also be issued.

(Image 4)

Sanctions* – Licensure Boards

- Reprimand (Public)
- Probationary status (e.g., limit practice to areas prescribed by the board; completion of professional education approved by the board until satisfactory skill level achieved, etc.)
- Fine (for each violation)
- Require restitution to a consumer who suffered damages as a result of the conduct
- Suspension
- Revocation
- Other discipline (e.g., Examination on Law and Rules [including Code of Ethics])

Restitution of costs and expenses associated with disciplinary proceedings may also be allowed.

 Varies from state-to-state as delineated in each Practice Act.*

(Image 5)

(Image 7)

